2 Afghans held in Indian over stealing money from a restaurant

1/6/2017

Indian Police have arrested two Afghan over an alleged theft of $10,000 and 300,000 rupees from a restaurant run by another Afghan in Lajpat Nagar area of New Delhi, a media report has said.

Afghan national Ahmad Fawed Ahnabri, the owner of Mazaar restaurant in Lapat Nagar-II, had lodged a police complaint on December 16 accusing his two employees, Zakriya Hamraj and Shahim Halim, both Afghan nationals, of stealing USD 10,000 and Rs. 3 lakh from his restaurant, according to NDTV.

The incident of theft which occurred around 4.30 pm on that day was captured by CCTV cameras installed in the shop.

A case was registered at Lajpat Nagar police station and a probe launched, said DCP (south-east) Romil Baaniya.

Initially, it was difficult to trace the accused as the address provided by the complainant was found to be fake and their mobile phones were switched off, police said.

Police received information through sources that the accused were trying to escape to Afghanistan via Nepal as they did not have valid passports or visa.

Police have recovered 122,000 Indian rupees from the two accused.
