ISI accused of orchestrating recent terrorist attacks

1/13/2017

Hundreds of protesters in capital Kabul on Friday accused Pakistan's Inter Services Intelligence (ISI) for its involvement in recent deadliest attacks in the country and asked the United Nation (UN) to press the neighboring country over its policy of state sponsored terrorism.

As many as 500 protesters rallied from the embassy of Pakistan to the Baraki Barak Square and chanted slogans of death to Taliban, death to ISI, Pakistan embassy is spy net and "ISI is our killer".

Qazi Ahmad Ahmadi, one of the protesters, said Pakistan's ISI was involved in the killing of the people of Afghanistan and the diplomatic mission of the neighboring country should be closed.

He said they want the UN to put pressure on Pakistan until Islamabad quiet support for terrorists.

He asked the UN to tell the world that terrorist sanctuaries existed in Pakistan which should be destroyed. The protesters passed a resolution at the end.

The resolution asked Pakistan to behave like a responsible state, hand over Taliban leaders of the Quetta Shura and Haqqani Network to the Afghan government and cut off links with terrorist organizations

It added some religious seminaries of the Pakistani military directly supported Taliban and staged direct attacks on Afghanistan.
