Condolence Message to the Iranian Ranjbaran Party

March 08, 2019

Dear comrades,

Hereby, we would like to convey the heartfelt condolences of the leadership and all members of our organization to the leadership and members of your party and his mournful family on the occasion of comrade K. Ibrahim's death, as well.

In addition to the ideological and ideal common grounds, members of our organization have become more familiar with comrade K. Ibrahim through his writings. To the best of our knowledge, K. Ibrahim participation along the revolutionary course full of the ups and downs for many years, as a Marxist-Leninist distinguished figure of your party's leadership in the ideological and liberation struggles towards materializing the ideal of socialism and an author and analyst.

The death of comrade K. Ibrahim is a huge loss to your party and the people of Iran, and to the revolutionary struggle and the liberation of the millions of oppressed people in Iran, and we felt pain and grief because of his death.

Communist revolutionary ideals are common. Undoubtedly, the revolutionary memories and aspirations of the Comrade K. Ibrahim is alive in the continuation of his struggle to realize these aspirations by the members of your party, other revolutionaries of Iran and the communists and revolutionaries of other countries!

We keep the glorious memories of this fallen comrade!
