A message from the United Revolutionary workers of Iran

To the working classes of all the countries and the hard-working people

We have witnessed the brutal violence of the police and the boots of the Islamic regime, its police and barbarous security forces, led to the violence the workers, retirees, students and women and the activists of the labor movement during the May Day march in Tehran. We are complaining about this shameful repression to you and we ask you to continue your support of workers in Iran until the unconditional release of the arrested people.

The demonstrators had been rallied in front of the parliament. But the repressive forces of the regime attacked them with full violence and beat dozens of workers from various labor sectors (including members of the Union of the Workers of Tehran and its Suburbs Bus Company, students, retirees, and women). They were arrested and transferred to police stations and may be imprisoned and prosecuted for the May Day demonstration and assembly.

We, United Revolutionary workers of Iran, condemn firmly this anti-human and anti-worker action, of the Islamic Regime of Iran call for the immediate and unconditional release of all detainee.
