Solidarity Committees Demand:

The immediate and unconditional release of the May Day and Teachers Day arrestees in Iran

In Iran, May 1st, and May 2nd coincide with the International Workers Day and Teachers Day respectively.

On May 1st, May Day, in Tehran, and in response to a call by the workers 'organizations, those workers who gathered in Baharestan square (Maidan), for expressing their demands, were faced with the suppression of security forces of the reactionary and anti-workers of the Islamic Republic, during which, dozens of the labor activists were arrested and numerous protesters were beaten and wounded by the regimes 'mercenaries.

Also, on May 2nd, Teachers Day, the national protest of the teachers in some cities, including in Tehran, were faced with the onslaught of the regimes' mercenaries, and a number of teacher activists were arrested.

Thus, until the immediate and unconditional release of all the arrestees, we, the Solidarity committees with the Iranian workers movement-abroad, alongside of other advocates of the workers and toilers rights' organizations, will not stop, and we will apply all of our efforts and facilities in this important task.
