Western complicity with the brutal violence of Israeli apartheid increases Palestinian resistance and international solidarity

Sources: bdsmovement.net

The BDS movement roundly condemns the governments of the colonial West for once again hypocritically supporting apartheid Israel and adopting its misleading chronology of current "violence" as if it all began this morning with the powerful armed reaction of the oppressed Palestinian people in Gaza. This skewed chronology is intended to hide the oppressor's initial colonial violence and its intensification over decades.

The Israeli far-right government, the most racist, fundamentalist and radical in history, has ruthlessly intensified its ethnic cleansing, siege, killings, deprivation of liberty and daily humiliation of millions of indigenous Palestinians in the occupied Gaza Strip and West Bank, including East Jerusalem. He believed that their unmasked brutality would force the Palestinian people to simply surrender and accept oppression as destiny.

Israel is drunk with power and impunity as a result of the unconditional complicity, financing and arming of the United States and Europe, The shameful normalization and military alliances with Arab dictatorships, and the complicity of the Palestinian Authority. By The Netanyahu regime felt it was time to bury the "question of Palestine" once and for all.

Ignoring this key context, the voices of the West again are condemning Palestinian "violent attacks" against Israel.

Regardless of how people around the world understand the Armed resistance and how it is regulated by international law can only agree with Brazilian educator Paulo Freire who said:

"With the establishment of a relationship of oppression, violence is already has begun. Never in history has violence been initiated by Oppressed... Violence is initiated by those who oppress, those who exploit, those who They do not recognize others as persons, not those who are oppressed, exploited, and not recognized."

Since oppression is the cause fundamental of violence, to end all violence – violence initial and continuous resistance of those who oppress and the reactive resistance of those who are Oppressed and oppressed – we must act to end oppression. How to demonstrated in the South African struggle that dismantled apartheid in that country, expose and end state, corporate and institutional complicity with the regime Israel's 75 years of settler colonialism and apartheid, especially through tactics of Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS), are the most ethical and international solidarity strategies to put an end to all oppression and all violence. Only in this way can we achieve freedom, justice, equality and dignity.
