Born in Gaza, in the face of the terrorist state and without International Humanitarian Law

Condemning this barbarity is not anti-Semitic, it does not commit the crime of inciting discrimination, hatred or violence against the Jewish people, on the contrary, it shows that the people shamefully humiliated by Nazi Germany are outraged by Zionism that tries to eliminate the root of Palestinian culture.

The UN, as immense as it is weak, remains paralyzed by the voice of the United States of America, which with geopolitical interest encourages wars and barbarism on all continents, except in its own backyard. To achieve peace, weapons are least necessary and diplomacy is most useful. Israel has a state and government, led by the Zionist ultra-right, which makes the aggression received from Hamas its best excuse to maintain its domination and occupation over the Palestinian people, whose main asset is called dignity and resistance. Israel's military actions contravene the rules of international humanitarian law. They are in the orbit of crimes against humanity, because of their systematicity and intent they affect the dignity of all humanity, not just the offended people. They are genocide and war crimes. The UN on at least one occasion declared the State of Israel responsible for genocide, the principle of distinction is evaded and with full conscience attacks protected persons, civilians, children and women, becoming state terrorism, planned to annihilate.

Condemning this barbarity is not anti-Semitic, it does not commit the crime of inciting discrimination, hatred or violence against the Jewish people, on the contrary, it shows that the people shamefully humiliated by Nazi Germany are outraged by Zionism that tries to eliminate the root of Palestinian culture. The Israeli minister's announcement to "wipe out human animals" is similar to the Nazi voice of "eliminate the Jewish pigs" and under principles of exaggeration, disfigurement and creation of the single enemy, it promises total destruction, through banishment or genocide. International solidarity in diplomacy for states that respect self-determination and for the mobilization in the streets, on the part of peoples in democracy, can increase the calls for the International Criminal Court to soon enter to judge crimes against humanity and prevent the promise of total destruction.

The extermination plan is not new, the documentary "Born in Gaza" (Hernán ZIN) is introduced through children in Israel's offensive in the Gaza Strip in 2014, which left 506 children dead and 3598 wounded. Mohamed, due to the lack of food, left school to dedicate himself to collecting plastics from landfills, some with bombs in the rubble (similar to the movie story: turtles also fly). Mohamed comments that every two years this war (massacre) repeats itself. The girls' school that has the UN flags and ambulances were also bombed, none of the victims had weapons, none were a war machine, they were all innocent civilians.

Udai showed the rubble of his house destroyed by the bombing, he couldn't recover anything, the fortune for him and his friends is to stay alive until the next bombing, no one knows, anyone is next. He says he saw with his own eyes how his 22-year-old brother, who was delivering soft drinks, was torn to death, now he has nightmares, he can't sleep, his uncle also died.

Born in Gaza, it shows total destruction, human works, infrastructures, houses, buildings, nothing standing, only rubble, metal and cement piled up, molten matter, the work of their hands and their intelligence, in ruins, they take away electricity, water and well-being with guarantees and rights. The transnational media encourages, burns, denies, doesn't care about Palestinian life, Muhamad shows the inert and worm-ridden bodies of the camel and lambs, says that his father grew cucumbers, tomatoes and peppers that they destroyed and adds that his farm has been destroyed 11 times between 2001 and 2014, and that with bulldozers they tore up the ground and affected some 17,000 hectares of crops and banished 24,000 families who had agriculture. No one was growing bombs, no one had weapons, they were innocent civilians. All the time, Gaza-born are harassed, rights are at the mercy of Israel with its narrative and actions of extermination and the United States the great godfather who points its finger at when barbarism is or is not allowed and keeps the UN under silence.

P.S. 1. Where were the foreign ministers, ministers and presidents of Colombia, who did not know about the UN's condemnations of Israel for genocide, the rejection of its decisions on Jerusalem, the repeated violations of IHL and its conduct as a "terrorist state"? 2. Yahir Klein, ex-Israeli soldier, mercenary, came at the "invitation" to teach paramilitaries the techniques to kill "human animals" (opponents) and before leaving he compromised a former president, cattle ranchers, investors...
