The Nobel Peace Center
Radhuspllassen, Oslo

Dear Sir:

The “Free Afghanistan” Portal was shocked and dismayed at your decision to award President Obama the Nobel Peace Prize. The announcement drew gasp and cries of too much, too soon. The Prize is always awarded to the devoted peace makers. President Obama undeserved the peace prize because of his continuing effort to escalate the war in Afghanistan and elsewhere. Is the Nobel Peace Center aware of what is happening to the miserable people of Afghanistan and Iraq? If so, the “Free Afghanistan” Portal has the right to question the wisdom of the Nobel Peace Center for its decision. In fact, President Obama:

- Reverted to the Bush policy on indefinite detention.
- Escalated the war in Afghanistan.
- Increased defense budget with more allocations to both Afghanistan and Iraq.
- Ordered the construction of new military bases.
- Invaded Somalia.
- Keeps America in virtual state of perpetual war.

We are at the crossroad of the most crises in modern history. The United States, in tandem with NATO and Israel, has launched a global military adventure which threatens the future of mankind. Granting the Nobel Peace Prize to President Obama will provide legitimacy to the practicing of violence and occupation of foreign lands, including the relentless killing of civilians in the name of human rights and democracy. When war becomes peace, when a military agenda is heralded as a humanitarian endeavor, when a war monger is upheld as a peace maker, and when the lie becomes truth, then the humanity will move to the direction of unprecedented disaster.
