Armed men on a motorbike shot dead the mayor of western Herat province's Shindand district in an overnight attack, also killing a civilian in the gunfire, local officials said.

Mayor Abdul Salaam Rahimi had left the mosque for evening prayers and was on his way home when a motorbike with two men approached and fired at him, provincial spokesman Mahiduing Noori said.

A civilian was hit by the bullets and also died, he said.

Rahimi has worked as the mayor of Shindand district for more than a year.

Local police said that they have started investigating the attack.
