5 Afghan students die in Istanbul

Jan 2, 2013 - 14:47

Authorities in Kabul have been informed about the death of five Afghan students in the Istanbul city of Turkey due to a gas leak in a house, an official said on Wednesday.

The five were found dead on Tuesday inside a four-story building in Zeytinburnu district, a local newspaper reported.

Turkish policemen, firefighters and health workers were sent to the scene as an investigation went on, Today's Zaman said in its report.

The Afghan Ministry of Higher Education had launched its own investigation into the deaths, the ministry's spokesman, Abdul Azim Noorbakhsh told Pajhwok Afghan News.

The students had gone for higher studies to Turkey, where 376 Afghans are enrolled to various universities.
