Zabul governor survives suicide attack

4/6/2013

The governor of southern Zabul province escaped unhurt in a suicide attack in this provincial capital before noon on Saturday, officials said.

The car bombing happened at 11.15am near the Provincial Reconstruction Team (PRT) compound in Kalat. The civil hospital and a high school are also located in the neighbourhood.

Police chief Brig. Gen. Rogh Lewanay told Pajhwok Afghan News the bomber wanted to target on Governor Ashraf Nasiri's convoy that was its way to the Sheikh Mati School.

Nasiri escaped unscathed but one of his security guards and a hospital worker were wounded in the bombing, Lewanay said.

But a Kalat Civil Hospital official said a body had been brought to the facility from the scene of the suicide assault. There was no immediate claim of responsibility.
