Suicide blast kill Afghan diplomats in Peshawar city

April 29, 2013

According to Pakistani police officials, at least eight people were killed and 45 others were injured following a suicide bom blast in University road on Monday.

The incident took place after the suicide bomber rammed motorcyle packed with explosives near the Azam tower, targeting senior official, Sahibzada Anees who escaped the attack.

Pakistani police official Mohammad Faisal confirming the casualties said at least eight people were killed and 45 others were injured.

Faisal quoted by AFP said, “The commissioner, who passed just a minute before from the road, was the target of the bombing, but he escaped unhurt as the bomber missed the target and struck his motorcycle into a passenger bus.”

According to reports deputy Afghan high peace council chief, Mohammad Amin Waqad has also lost his son, nephew and another family member following the blast.

Deputy Afghan refugee department chief Abdul Hameed Jalili in Peshawar city has confirmed the report.
