Heavy explosion and gun battle rock Kabul city

July 2, 2013

A group of militants early Tuesday attacked a private foreign logistic company in Pul-e-Charkhi area of Kabul city.

Kabul security chief Gen. Mohammad Ayoub Salangi said the militants initially exploded a vehicle packed with explosives in the area which triggered heavy gun battle.

Mr. Salangi further added that the attack was carried out by four suicide bombers and three of them managed to enter the compound of the foreign logistic company after the first bomber detonated the explosives packed in a lorry vehicle.

He said the clashes between Afghan security forces and the assailant militants continued for almost one hour after all of them were shot dead.

According to Mohammad Ayoub Salangi at least four Nepali guards of the company were killed along with two Afghan civilians following the incident.

Local residents and eyewitnesses in the area are saying that the company has also caught fire. No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the attack.
