District chief killed in Kunduz suicide attack

August 30, 2013

A heavy explosion rocked northern Kunduz province of Afghanistan on Friday morning, leaving the district chief for Dasht-e-Archi dead.

According to reports the incident took place after a suicide bomber detonated his explosives near a mosque where a memorial ceremony was held.

A spokesman for the provincial security commandment, Syed Sarwar Hussaini said at least 12 people including district chief for Dasht-e-Archi, Sheikh Sadruddin, his body guards and civilians were killed and nearly 40 others were critically injured following the incident.

Mr. Hussaini further added that the dead toll could rise as the health condition of those injured following the blast was critical.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.
