Female Afghan lawmaker was kidnapped by her brother

October 2, 2013

Afghan intelligence department — National Directorate of Security (NDS) on Wednesday announced that brother of female Afghan lawmaker has been arrested in connection to her kidnapping case.

National Directorate of Security (NDS) following a statement said, Noor Ahmad son of Ali Ahmad, and brother of Fariba Kakar was arrested along with another individual in connection to the kidnapping of the lawmaker.

The statement further added that the two individuals were arrested during investigation process of Fariba Kakar's kidnapping case.

According to NDS officials, the kidnapping plan of Fariba Kakar was plotted by Taliban group leader Mullah Abdullah in Qarabagh district of eastern Ghazni province.

Fariba Ahmadi Kakar was released by Taliban militants earlier in September in a deal with the Taliban group after a number of the prisoners were freed by the Afghan government.

The kidnapping plan was executed by Fariba Kakar's brother Noorullah and his companion Rohullah, NDS officials said, adding that the two individuals have confessed to their crimes and their links with the Taliban group.
