Explosion kills NATO soldier in southern Afghanistan

November 14, 2013

A NATO-soldier was killed following a roadside bomb explosion in southern Afghanistan on Wednesday.

NATO-led International Security assistance Force (ISAF) in a statement said, “An International Security Assistance Force service member died following an improvised explosive device attack in southern Afghanistan yesterday.”

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationality of the deceased soldier.

International Security assistance Force (ISAF) generally do not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan saying, “It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities.”

At least 146 NATO service members including 116 US troops, 8 British troops and 22 soldiers from the other NATO member countries have been killed in Afghanistan since the beginning of 2013, according to icasualties.org which tracks NATO casualties in Afghanistan.
