Roadside blast kill NATO soldier in southern Afghanistan

November 17, 2013

A service member of the NATO-led Intentional Security Assistance Force (ISAF) was killed following a roadside bomb explosion in southern Afghanistan on Sunday.

NATO-led ISAF following a statement confirmed the report and said, “An International Security Assistance Force service member died following an improvised explosive device attack in southern Afghanistan Nov. 17.”

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationality of the deceased soldier.

Intentional Security Assistance Force (ISAF) generally do not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan, saying, “It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities.”

At least 147 NATO service members including 117 US troops, 8 British troops and 22 soldiers from the other NATO member countries have been killed in Afghanistan since the beginning of 2013.
