Afghan intelligence release details of most wanted Mafia leader

September 15, 2014

The Afghan Intelligence – National Directorate of Security (NDS) released the footage of the most wanted Mafia leader who was arrested during an operation last night.

According to the National Directorate of Security (NDS), Khudadad who was also known as Raees Khudaidad was one of the most dangerous, prominent and skilled Mafia leaders in Afghanistan.

NDS said Raees Khudaidad was involved in major kidnap, murder and robbery cases across the country during the past few years, who was leading networks of criminal gangs in Kabul and other provinces.

Khudaidad was arrested following a special military operation conducted in the fifth police district of Kabul city that lasted for almost 36 hours.

NDS said Khudaidad was looking to resist Afghan intelligence operatives but was arrested along with two others who were accompanying him.

According to NDS, Khudaidad was living in Tajikistan, Pakistan and United Arab Emirates with different identities and was in the most wanted list of Tajikistan and Interpol.
