Facebook: Syrian rebels arrest Afghan man

December 26, 2014

According to a face book message a man who describes himself an Afghan and speaks Dari language states that he is arrested by rebels in Syria for fighting alongside the forces of Bashar Assad against the rebels.

He states in the message that he was sent to Syria by Iran for the monthly cost of $600.

He further states that he was sentenced to six years imprisonment in Iran on charges of drug trafficking but was later offered to go to Syria and support Bashar Assad if he wants get out of the captivity.

Months ago the reports of Afghan Nationals being sent to Syria by Iran were published but Afghan officials that time said that they are in contact with Iranian officials regarding the reports.

This was also discussed in the sessions of the house of representatives in Kabul.
