Dostum says 20, 000 Special Force set to root out Taliban

January 1, 2015

Afghanistan's vice president Abdul Rashid Dostum says that he has prepared a Special Force of 20, 000 fighters to eliminate Taliban from Afghanistan.

Abdul Rashid Dostum said he will clear Kundoz from Taliban and then root out Taliban in Kunar province.

Abdul Rashid Dostum is said to be one of the expert fighters in Afghanistan who never accepts defeat in the fight.

Afghanistan's vice president Abdul Rashid Dostum is on a special mission to northern Afghanistan to convince the armed opponents join peace process.

He has made a call to the Taliban that joining peace process and living in peace is better than being killed.

Only this week after his visit to the north of the country hundreds of Taliban joined peace process.

Dostum says that within 20 days thousands of more Taliban will join government.
