Kabul suicide attack: 4 confirmed dead, 15 wounded

March 25, 2015

A suicide bomber riding in a corolla vehicle carried out a heavy explosion in Kabul city this afternoon leaving heavy casualties behind.

Hospital sources confirm that at least four persons have been killed and 15 others wounded in the explosion.

It is still unknown as whom the possible target of the suicide attacker was but the explosion has taken place in a key place of Kabul city.

The headquarters of the 2nd police district, Ministry of Finance and other governmental organizations are located in the area.

Presidential palace is also not very far to the blast site.

Following the explosion security forces arrived at the scene and cordoned off the area.

Several vehicles were also seen damaged by the explosion at the site.

No group has immediately claimed responsibility for the explosion.

This is a developing story...
