Eight soldiers martyred, 45 militants killed in Kundoz clashes

April 26, 2015

Eight soldiers have embraced martyrdom in the ongoing clashes with militants in northern Kundoz province.

Abdul Wasi Basil, spokesman for the governor house in Kundoz province say that 16 soldiers have also sustained injuries in the heavy clashes ongoing in Gur Tapa and Qala-i-Zal District since yesterday.

He confirmed the killing of 45 militants during these clashes.

Reports from the area suggest that security forces have left some points to the militants in Gur Tapa area but Basil said that it was tactical stepping back.

Taliban spokesman has confirmed militants are involved in fighting with security forces in Kundoz province.

Residents from both locations have been escaping to safer areas including the provincial capital Kundoz city.

But it is not even safer there. A civilian lost his life in a bomb explosion in Kundoz city this morning.

Noor-ul-Huda an anti-Taliban cleric lost his life to the bomb attached to his vehicle.
