Suicide attack in Kandahar city leaves 7 people wounded

May 18, 2015

A suicide bomber targeted the vehicles of the Afghan security forces in southern Kandahar city leaving at least seven people injured.

The provincial governor spokesman confirmed the incident and said least two policemen and five civilians were injured in the attack.

In the meantime, another security official said the target of the explosion was the commander of the border protection police forces.

The official further added that the commander of the border protection police forces Ismat Afghan escaped the attack unhurt.

Officials in provincial hospital also confirmed that seven people injured in the attack including policemen were brought to the hospital for treatment.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

Kandahar is among the relatively volatile provinces in southern Afghanistan where anti-government armed militants are actively operating in a number of its districts and often carry out insurgency activities.
