Three policemen martyred in Kandahar “insider attack”

May 25, 2015

Three policemen have been martyred in an insider attack in restive Kandahar province.

A security official from Kandahar police headquarters who did not want to be named said that the attack took place in Shaheedan area of Maiwand District earlier this morning.

He said four policemen who were in touch with militants martyred three other policemen in Shaheedan check post and runaway with weapons and ammunition from the check post.

He said the four policemen escaped to insurgents with government weapons.

Taliban accept responsibility for the attack.

Qari Yousuf Ahmadi, spokesman for Taliban said it was carried out by their influenced companions within the ranks of police.

However, Zia Duranai who is spokesman for the provincial police headquarters in Kandahar rejects the hand of insurgents in the attack.

He said it happened due to personal disputes among the soldiers in the check post.
