Unidentified gunmen have kidnapped 14 civilians in Pul-i-Kumri, the provincial capital of northern Baghlan province.

Bismillah Attash, member of the provincial council of Baghlan says that the incident took place yesterday.

He said a group of unknown armed men stopped a civilian bus and took hostage 20 people, including six women, traveling in it.

According to Attash, tribal elders mediated to secure the release of six women but the men were taken hostages.

He did not mention the motive behind the abduction but Abdul Jabar Purdali the provincial police chief believes personal reasons could be the cause of it.
