A young boy and girl were publicly punished on adultery charges in Ghor province.

The couple received 100 lashes each by the order of primary court after they were held guilty of having illegal contacts with each other.

Ahmad, 21, and Zarmina, 22, were arrested from Feroz Koh city by security personnel and put in jail about 20 days before.

After spending several days and nights behind the bars, the Primary Court announced its decision to punish them in the yard of the court.

Local officials, community elders and other residence were also available while the couple was receiving punishment.

Atta Mohammad Farouqi, judge of the primary court said that Ahmad and Zarmina confessed to their crimes after which they were sentenced to lashes.

He said this punishment was announced to them based on the law.

Ahmad and Zarmina were released from the prison after receiving their punishment.

Farouqi said that Zarmina was transferred to a safe house for her own safety.

According to the court, Ahmad and Zarmina have a child as the result of their illegal contacts.
