Russia to host talks on Afghanistan next month

Nov 14, 2016

Representatives from regional countries will hold consultations on Afghanistan in Moscow next month, a Russian foreign ministry official has said.

Director of 2nd Asian Department at Russian Foreign Ministry Zamir Kabulov told RIA Novosti that Afghanistan, Russia, Pakistan and China would attend next month's meeting, Director of 2nd Asian Department at Russian Foreign Ministry Zamir Kabulov told a Russian new agency.

RIA Novosti quoted Kabulov as saying it was in the interests of regional stakeholders to protect themselves from terrorist spillover.

He suggested containment efforts should take the form of an "Afghan-regional" project -- an idea Russia is discussing this with Chinese, Iranian, Indian and Pakistani governments.

"There is work on specifics... For example, we are planning the next Russian-Chinese-Pakistani consultations in December. They will be held in Moscow," the diplomat added.
