The Washington-Kiev “Victory” Plan – War On Russia

Volodymyr Zelensky, presently kept in place in Ukraine as a dictator-vassal of the United States of America, presented on October 16th his so-called “Victory Plan” to the equally illegitimate Ukrainian parliament.

The “Victory Plan”- written in Washington

He claims it is his plan, but all reasonable observers must conclude that it was devised and written in Washington and given to him to pretend to peddle to the other vassal states, and to the world. I say pretend because the plan clearly has already been decided on by the United States and the sales pitch Zelensky had to humiliate himself with, going from door to door, capital to capital, cap in hand, was just so much theatre to make it look like there is some doubt about its acceptance and implementation. Its sole purpose is to fool the citizens of the world that there is some give and take in “rule-based order,” that in the American ruled world there is the illusion of freedom.

There are no rules without a ruler, and since the USA claims to be ruler of the world, it makes up its rules as it goes along to suit whatever exigency occurs. So it has ruled that the war against Russia will be carried on, come what may; which, as Dmitry Medvedev keeps warning us, is a very dangerous plan, a plan not for victory but for assured destruction of themselves and the world.

NATO's aggressive moves towards Russia would draw a response

The Eight Point Plan

But what is this plan? There are 5 public points and 3 points which are "secret," though the veil of secrecy has been lifted a bit to give us look at what the Americans and their gang of murderous thieves intend against Russia.

Point One-Joining NATO

The first part of the plan is that Ukraine is to be invited to join NATO. Since the regime in Kiev has no control over NATO issuing an invitation to Ukraine, and since, in any case, Ukraine is a de facto NATO controlled state, which has NATO forces in its territory conducting operations against Russian forces, this is nothing more than a deliberate provocation of Russia by the Americans. Russia has stated time after time that Ukraine can never be a member of NATO, the aggressive war machine of the Americans. It is a machine of war that directly threatens Russia's immediate and long-term security, and this threat is one of the reasons that Russia was forced to act to defend itself when it finally entered Ukraine with its forces to protect the peoples of the Donbass and other Russian areas from the continuous attacks made against them by the Nazi-infected NATO installed regime in Kiev.

We remember as well that Zelensky has signed mutual defence agreements with most of the NATO countries, so that whether or not Ukraine is a part of NATO, the same gang will be involved. For Zelensky to seek an invitation to join NATO, when his regime is the ugly expression of NATO, is macabre.

The new head of NATO, Mark Rutte stated, that,

"The victory plan is not only about an invitation to become a member of NATO. The victory plan has more elements. The next steps are not just on this issue, but on the general content of the victory plan." He stated that Russia has no role in deciding if Ukraine should be in NATO.

Has Mr. Rutte been asleep, like Rip Van Winkle, since 2007, when President Putin stated in his Munich speech that NATO's aggressive moves towards Russia would draw a response, or since the Russian military operations began in Ukraine, when President Putin stated the threat of Ukraine becoming part of NATO was an important factor in the decision to take action. Was he asleep through the many statements of the Russian leadership since then? For Russia has indeed decided. Ukraine will not be a member of NATO. The decision is final.

Point Two of the plan is more weapons, delivered faster, with no restrictions on their use.

This is a threat by the USA to attack Russia with weapons that threaten its existential existence, and the Russian leadership can understand that this is a threat to strike with nuclear weapons or other weapons of mass destruction, to terrorise the population and destroy Russia's ability to defend itself. It is a threat to replicate in Russia what the USA and its Israeli ally is doing in Gaza and Lebanon. It is the threat of mass terrorism.

The result of carrying out such strikes will not be the saving of Ukraine, but the final destruction of the illegitimate regime that is in power and the destruction of the United States of America and its other allies. Russia's warnings fall on ears unable to hear since the leadership of the West refuses to give up its illusions of power, the illusions that confirm that sense of power, or their delusion that Russia is bluffing when it states any such attack will be met with a decisive and powerful response. Like all illusions that people suffer from, the West's will not be discarded easily, if ever, and so they will carry on making decisions based on their illusions, that will be fatal to them, if not all humanity.

Point Three is Deterrence

Ukraine proposes to deploy on its soil a comprehensive non-nuclear strategic deterrence package that will be sufficient to protect Ukraine from any military threat from Russia.

What can this mean when the USA, and its NATO allies have been defeated at every step by Russia, when they have supplied almost everything they have to Ukraine and every weapon's system they have deployed has been destroyed, when the Ukrainian army has been cut to ribbons and is retreating all up and down the line of contact, and when its energy and manufacturing systems, its rail and other transportation systems are crippled by Russian strikes?

It can only mean that NATO forces will enter the conflict openly with large units and will try to establish air superiority. But the important point is that this idea is not to create deterrence, but to create the circumstances for an attack on Russia.

Point Four-The Looting of Ukraine

The fourth point gives away one of the primary reasons for this war, the looting of Ukraine by its friends in the USA, and EU, for Zelensky, a typical Quisling figure, proposes that Ukraine give away its resources, worth trillions of dollars, to the European Union and USA by signing a special agreement on common use of Ukraine's critical resources, like lithium, gas, titanium and other minerals. In other words, these thieves want something for their trouble, and the wealth of Ukraine is what their puppet is willing to give them. It's a wonder he has not yet turned up, hanging by a wire, on a lamppost, as the Italians did with Mussolini.

Point Five-Ukrainian troops occupy Europe

Point five is the most bizarre of all. Zelensky-that is, the Americans, propose replacing American occupation forces in Europe with Ukrainian forces, since they are "battle-hardened." Who would pay for that is not stated, nor why "battle hardened" troops will be needed in Europe if Russia is defeated-for use against the European people? No one is saying, but it seems the Americans, deep in debt, want to cut costs, and so use Ukrainians to man their garrisons and Ukraine will be expected to offer this service for free, as part of the payback for all the help they have been given. What else can it mean?

Yes, the reader will shake their head in disbelief at this one when the Ukrainian armed forces are on their knees, with hundreds of thousands dead, many more wounded, their best men dead or crippled, demoralised, many young men evading service by fleeing to other countries or deserting, when press gangs are used to force men into service, when Ukraine is facing total defeat.

Secret Sections Revealed

The three secret sections of the plan are, well, secret, more or less. Poland has demanded to see what they are and is upset it has not been shown to them yet, as they were apparently shown to the leaders of the UK, Germany and France. But the veil of secrecy was lifted a little by Mykhailo Podolyak, advisor to the Head of the Presidential Office, in an interview with the YouTube channel RBC-Ukraine, on October 17. He stated that the secret addenda involve the destruction of Russia's logistics, the destruction of important objects, including places where troops are concentrated and other strategic targets, and concern the types of weapons to be used, the list of targets and so on. The secret sections set out a plan of attack.

Essence of the Plan-Strategic Defeat of Russia

The essence of this Plan then is the strategic defeat of Russia. It is the plan of madmen and fools, who cannot see they are already defeated and that Russia is not alone against them but has powerful allies and a strong economic base to be able to succeed and consolidate its objective of securing an enduring peace for Russia, and for the rest of the world. It is also the crime of conspiracy to commit aggression against Russia, the supreme war crime, but do not expect the prosecutor of the ICC to do anything about it. No answer lies there.

The Answer-The Potential For Peace – The Present Reality of War

But we do see an answer to the Washington-Zelensky fantasy victory plan in the world important BRICS Summit in Kazan, where the really great powers of the world assembled to discuss and to plan how to carry the world forward to a new stage of development and cooperation, where peace is the only way forward and war is consigned to the dustbin of history along with American hegemony.

But we are in the present, not the future. The present danger presented to the world by the United States hegemonic objective, by its war machine, is only increasing. The people of the world have to speak out. This “victory plan” – drafted in Washington – the plan for war against Russia – has to be seen for what it is – as part of a greater plan for a war for control of the world.
